Lakeway Regional Medical Center Announces Addition of Interventional Cardiologist, Dr. Pavan Karnati

LAKEWAY, Texas – January 27, 2016 – Lakeway Regional Medical Center (LRMC), a state-of-the-art medical campus dedicated to the delivery of quality healthcare, today announced the addition of Dr. Pavan Karnati to its cardiology team.

Dr. Karnati specializes in the evaluation and treatment of coronary and peripheral vascular disease through measures including percutaneous coronary intervention, also known as coronary angioplasty, to open blocked arteries in the heart. He holds six board certifications in the areas of cardiovascular disease, echocardiography, endovascular interventions, internal medicine, interventional cardiology and nuclear cardiology.

With the arrival of Dr. Karnati, the LRMC Cardiology Group now boasts three dedicated cardiologists focusing on progressive cardiology care for patients in Austin and across Central Texas.

Before joining LRMC, Dr. Karnati worked in Richlands, Va., where he started a new interventional cardiology program at Clinch Valley Medical Center. He completed his residency in internal medicine and a fellowship in cardiovascular disease at Albany Medical Center in Albany, N.Y. Dr. Karnati has completed additional fellowships in heart failure at Boston University School of Medicine and VA Boston Healthcare System in Boston, and most recently, in interventional cardiology at Bridgeport Hospital and Yale New Haven Health System in Connecticut.
