Philippe Bochaton Named Chief Executive Officer of Lakeway Regional Medical Center

LAKEWAY, Texas – (June 15, 2015) – Philippe Bochaton has been named chief executive officer of Lakeway Regional Medical Center, a state-of-the-art medical campus dedicated to providing the delivery of world-class healthcare in both general and specialized medicine.

"Philippe is an innovative leader who brings not only broad and deep experience in operations and strategic thinking to Lakeway Regional Medical Center, but also a visionary spirit necessary to grow the delivery of comprehensive, high quality medical care in our community," said Eddie Alexander, member of the board of directors for Lakeway Regional Medical Center.

Prior to joining Lakeway Regional Medical Center, Bochaton served as Chief Administrative Officer, Neurosciences and Rehabilitation and President, NeuroTexas Institute Research Foundation at St. David's HealthCare in Austin, Texas for more than seven years. In that capacity, Bochaton was responsible for the strategic direction and the growth of the neurosciences, orthopaedics and rehabilitation practices for St. David's six acute hospitals and one rehabilitation hospital. Previously, Bochaton served in several managerial and executive roles at Cedars Sinai Medical Center in Los Angeles, California including within the Neurosurgical Institute and The Pain Center.

"I feel very privileged to be part of the team Lakeway Regional Medical Center," said Philippe Bochaton. "The team has entrusted me with this fine medical facility and staff. Together, we are poised to become the finest specialty hospital in the area."

Bochaton earned both doctorate and master's degrees in business administration from the International School of Management in Paris, France and New York, New York. He also holds a bachelor of science in physical therapy from the Vichy Medical Center in Vichy, France.
