Lakeway Regional Medical Center Expands Orthopedic Services

Lakeway, TX (August 23, 2013) — Lakeway Regional Medical Center is pleased to announce the expansion of its orthopedic services with Travis Orthopedics Spine and Sports under the care of R. David Calvo, MD, a Board certified Orthopedic Surgeon, who provides specialized orthopedic care for patients of all ages in need of total joint replacement, sports medicine surgical procedures and other general orthopedic care. The practice is located at 200 Medical Parkway on the Lakeway Regional Medical Center campus.

“The objective for Travis Orthopedics Sports and Spine is to serve as the hub for orthopedic care in the Lake Travis community for aging, active and young residents,” explains Dr. Calvo. “The response of my arrival in this community has been overwhelmingly welcoming since there was such a high demand for these services in the area. I look forward to continuing to grow my practice and serve this wonderful community.”

Dr. R. David Calvo earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Texas at Austin. He subsequently completed his masters with a degree in cancer research at M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute and University of Texas Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences in Houston. Upon completion of his masters degree, Dr. Calvo obtained his medical degree from the University of Texas Medical School at Houston. He completed his surgical internship and a four-year orthopedic surgery residency at the Hermann Hospital/University of Texas Medical School in Houston.

Dr. Calvo subsequently completed a post-graduate fellowship in Sports Medicine, Arthroscopic & Reconstructive Surgery of the Knee at the world-famous Steadman Clinic, and a second post-graduate fellowship in Reconstructive Surgery of Degenerative Joints in Edinburgh, Scotland. Before coming to the Lakeway/Austin area to develop the orthopedic department at Lakeway Regional Medical Center, Dr. Calvo practiced in Sugar Land, Texas and the surrounding Houston area for 28 years.

He is board certified by the American Board of Orthopedic Surgery, and a Fellow of the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons. Dr. Calvo has a special interest in sports injuries and artificial joints of the upper and lower extremities. He is an accomplished tri-athlete and sports enthusiast. He has served as physician and surgeon for thousands of patients including many amateur, collegiate teams and professional athletes. He and his wife, Dianne, live in the Austin/Lakeway community.

“It is our mission to provide compassionate, high quality health care that positively impacts and improves the health and well-being of those we serve,” said David Kreye, LRMC CEO. “By launching Travis Orthopedics, Sports and Spine with Dr. Calvo and his team, we provide a full complement of orthopedic services from diagnosis to surgical and non-surgical treatment and rehabilitation of orthopedic injuries and conditions, strengthening our commitment to continually offer expert care and services right here, close to home.”

Their team of board certified physicians utilizes the latest medical knowledge and the most advanced techniques to provide you with the best care possible. And they attempt to offer same-day appointments making access easy and immediate. After diagnosis and treatment, the physicians and support team work closely with you throughout the healing process to ensure the fastest and most complete recovery possible. Their surgical services are complemented by a full array of non-surgical treatment options including those services provided by their expert physical therapy department.

Travis Orthopedics Sports and Spine is now accepting new patients. To schedule an appointment, call (512) 654-8677 (TOSS). Most major insurances accepted.
