Lakeway Regional Medical Center Announces Addition of Board Certified Internist, Dr. Greg Morper

LAKEWAY, Texas – February 25, 2016 – Lakeway Regional Medical Center (LRMC), a state-of-the-art medical campus dedicated to the delivery of quality healthcare, today announced the addition of Board Certified Internist, Dr. Greg Morper, to its internal medicine team.

Dr. Morper's internal medicine practice, which accepts Medicare, places a heavy emphasis on wellness and prevention. He has over 30 years of traditional internal medicine experience at practices in Colorado, Texas and Washington. Dr. Morper is a primary physician for many fellow physicians, and when not practicing internal medicine, serves as a public speaker and educator addressing diseases related to the obesity epidemic and training health coaches across the country.

Before joining LRMC, Dr. Morper managed internal medicine care at Central Washington Hospital in Wenatchee, Wash. He has additional experience with Whitman Medical Group in Washington and the University of Colorado Health Sciences Center and Veterans Administration.

Dr. Morper has twice been named Best Health Professional in regions with over 150 primary physicians. He is a member of the American College of Physicians and the Washington State Medical Association.

He earned his Bachelor of Science from Colorado State University, and attended medical school at St. Louis University, where he graduated Cum Laude. He completed his internship and internal medicine residency at the University of Colorado Health Sciences Center.
